METHODISTS ASK FUNDS FOR HERMITAGE HOME

It is the annual custom of the 1,200 Methodist Churches in the Virginia Conference to take a special offering for Hermitage the Home for the Aged which belongs to the Conference and is located at 1600 Westwood Avenue, Richmond, Va. An appeal to the 600 pastors to lead in this effort has gone out from Bishop Paul Neff Garber, resident bishop of the Richmond Area. Materials from the Hermitage have been placed in the hands of the pastors for distribution to the entire membership of the Confeernce which now numbers more than 300,000.

Two dormitories are under construction at the Home, the cost of which will be nearly one million dollars when finished. The buildings are now about one-third complete and the consutrction work is progressing rapidly. There are now 77 men and women in the home, but the capacity will be 250 when this additional dormitary space is ready for use. In addition to 147 bedrooms there will be a dozen rooms for occupational and physical therapy providing an outlet for activity by those interested in ceramics, weaving, sewing, handcraft, art and other hobbies. Each floor will have a spacious solarium for lounging or social visiting.

With the completion of these buildings Hermitage will be one of the largest Homes for the Aging owned by the Methodist Church in the U. S., while it has already reached that point of efficiency to be recognized as one of the best among the 70 such Homes for the denomination. In a little more than six years, beginning with nothing except the promise of freewill offerings through the churches, the Home now has, in addition to the new construction, a modern dormitory, administration building, dining hall and infirmary all connected and with conveniences necessary for the care of aging persons.

The aim set for offerings this year is $175,000 and in keeping with this total for the Conference each church is asked to set its own goal or a minimum of at least one dollar per member.

The 23rd International Sunday School Convention

The 23rd International Sunday School Convention will be held July 27-31 in Celveland, Ohio. Cooperative Christianity was started in Virginia as a direct result of the first International Convention at Baltimore in 1875. Top quadrennial event of the Division of Christian Education, National Council of Churches, Canadian Council of Churches, 37 Denominations, and Councils of Churches.

The annual Woman's Day program will be observed at the Promise Land Baptist Church this Sunday at 3:30 P. M. The literary program will be made up from talent of the church and visiting churches. The main address will be given by Mrs. Henrietta Miller, of Phenix, Va. The church senior choir and the Seven Wonders Singers, of Appomattox will render music. Miss Mattie Fleshman will serve as mistress of ceremony.

A high day was reported at the Mount Airy Baptist Church last Sunday. The pastor, Rev. H. H. Cabell delivered a spiritual sermon from the thirteenth chapter of St. John. The Rev. J. W. Davis, of Amherst and Rev. J. W. Cabell, of Buckingham were visitors. The offering for the day was $102.67.

Plans are nearing completion for the annual men's day program at the Galilee Baptist Church on the third Sunday in this month at 8:00 P. M. The Rose Land Singers of Lynchburg will be the guest singers. Visiting churches are asked to take a part.

The annual mother's day program will be held this Sunday at Mount Airy Baptist Church. The mother of the year will be crowned during the evening service, which will begin at 7:30. The contestants are Mrs. Nannie McCoy and Mrs. Emily Pennix. The mother's day sermon will be delivered by Rev. R. A. Edwards, pastor of Canaan Baptist Church.

The ladies auxiliary of the Hasidiah Association will hold its annual meeting here with the First Bapaist and Galilee Baptist Churches this June 9 and 10.

Annual mother's day services will be held at the First Baptist Church this Sunday at the regular preaching hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Lawing and Mrs. R. Q. Lawing spent Sunday in Petersburg, where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Lawing's aunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Stovall, of Richmond and Mr. and Mrs. Miller, of Lynchburg were week-end guests of Rev. and Mrs. Gordan.

Pamplin, Va.- Little Miss Gladys Lawson had quite a gay affair on her 6th birthday in the home of her foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Jones on April 20, at 5:30 P. M. Her guests were Little Miss Joyce and Grace Allen, Little Miss Vivian and Little Scott and Master Harold White. These children were accompanied by their mothers. The children's eyes glowed with delight as they entered the dining room. First they chimed in with "Happy Birthday" to Gladys as the sound of the tune vanished, they began to mounch fried chicken and hot rolls with numerous other goodies. The mother assisted the little miss in extinguishing the lights of the six candles which so beautifully bedecked the birthday cake. Her senior guests remained for dinner at 7:30.

A large crowd attended preaching services at the St. Luke Baptist Church. Rev. J. A. Shelton, pastor, preached a good sermon. Mrs. Ametha Jones was at the piano. The choir sang. Mr. Samuel Hunter Jr. lead in singing, "Search Me Lord." The captains on the previous rally made reports of money taken in since the rally day. The offering was very good. Many visitors were present.

Mrs. Louise Canada has returned to her duties in Appomattox, after spending the week-end at her home and attending church and visiting her mother, Mrs. C. V. Elliott. Mr. Chas. H. Canada, and the grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Canada also visited in the home of Mrs. Elliott, Ramona, Alfred and Stancill Canada.

Dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Canada were Rev. J. A. Shelton, Mrs. Ametha Jones, Mr. J. H. Hurtt.

Sorry to note that Mrs. Catherine Tweedy is still a patient at the Lynchburg General Hospital.

Mr. James Collier has returned home from service and is now with his home people, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hurtt.

The Campbell Co. High School is having its May Day program May 9th. The school is also working to set up a school band.

Sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Jessie King's sister, who lived in Baltimore, Md.

Birthdays

Miss Mary Walker, May 1.
Miss Rebecca Wheeler, May 8.
Mrs. Eunice Dungee, May 10.
Miss Anna Bailey, May 13.

Willie Braxton, May 18.

Wash Slip Covers

Vat-dryed, pre-shrunk slip covers can be run safely through one cycle of the washing machine.

Miss Ruth Jamison, house furnishings specialist at VPI, says to tumble them dry or hang them in the shade until they are only slightly damp. Press the flounce and slip them on the chair to finish drying. They can then be shaped to fit as well as when new, and you'll save lots of ironing time. You may need to press with a medium hot iron along the most prominent seams.

"A LITTLE PARABLE FOR MOTHERS"

(Editor's note: We are indebted to Mrs. George L. Koos, of Tangent, Oregon,—daughter of Dr. D. A. Christian, Jr., of Appomattox—for sending us the following, from the Oregon Parent - Teacher):-

The young mother set her foot on the path of life. "Is the way long?" she asked. And her Guide said: "Yes, and the way is hard. And you will be old before you reach the end of it. But the end will be better than the beginning."

But the young mother was happy, and she would not believe that anything could be better than these years. So she played with her children, and gathered flowers for them along the way, and bathed with them in the clear streams; and the sun shone on them, and life was good, and the young mother cried, "Nothing will ever be lovelier than this."

Then night came, and storm, and the path was dark, and the children shook with fear and cold, and the mother drew them close and covered them with her mantle, and the children said, "Oh, Mother, we are not afraid, for you are near, and no harm can come," and the mother said, "This is better than the brightness of day, for I have taught my children courage."

And the morning came, and there was a hill ahead, and the children climbed and grew weary, and the mother was weary; but at all times she said to the children, "A little patience, and we are there." So the children climbed, and when they reached the top, they said: We could not have done it without you, Mother." And the mother, when she lay down that night looked up at the stars and said, "This is a better day than the last, for my children have learned fortitude in the face of hardness. Yesterday, I gave them courage. Today I have given them strength."

And the next day came strange clouds which darkened the earth—clouds of war and hate, and evil, and the children groped and stumbled, and the mother said, "Look up! Lift your eyes to the Light." And the children looked and saw above the clouds an Everlasting Glory, and it guided them beyond the darkness. And that night the mother said, "This is the best day of all, for I have shown my children God."

And the days went on, and the months and the years grew old, and the children grew strong, and waxed tall. And when the way was rough, they helped their mother, and when the way was steep, and at last they came to a high place, and beyond the hill lay a shining road and a wide, flung wide.

And the mother said, "We have reached the end of our journey. And now I know that better than the beauty of the way, and better than the love of children can walk, is the memory of children after them."

Vegetable Price Outlook Given For May

There's a reason for everything —but it's always the season to either buy or sell vegetables. And here's the way the prices will be, for May, as it looks to Dr. J. L. Maxton, of the VPI agricultural economics department.

Pyramid crates of asparagus may bring $3.00 to $4.00 depending on quantity. Local supplies will drop.

Heavy supplies of beets may bring price drops to $1.25 to $1.50 in bushel or dozen bunches.

The freeze delayed cabbage shipments from the south. Supplies may be heavy to overlapping after May 20, with price drops.

Storage stocks of late potatoes are moving out rapidly as the result of freeze in the south. Prices will range from $4.00 to $4.50 for 100 pound sacks.

New potatoes are expected to be in good supply by late May at $4.00 per 100 pound sacks of No. 1 grade.

Heavy supplies of snap beans after May 20 will probably bring price declines to $1.75 to $2.25 per bushel.

Good quality sweet potatoes are short in demand. Expect to play or sell for around $5.00 per bushel.

Strawberry prices should drop to $6.50 for crates of 24 quarts of U. S. No. 1 by the end of the month as the quality of the crop declines.

Maxton says that vegetables generally should recover from the freeze by late May, and you can look for the supply situation to be on the heavy side after that.

Subscription rate: $2.00 a year payable in advance.

ATTENDANCE RECORD AT EVERGREEN SCHOOL
